The tendency of the market to settle on the 50-cent mark has caused a cloud of gloom, unctured with woe, to settle on the faces of the great majority of oil operators the last few days. The average operator is a sensitive creature on the subject of the market. He watches its gentle fluctuations as the average youth does the baseball bulletin. When the market is on the upward track, the operator is happy. It makes no difference whether he has a cent at stake, or a barriel of production. Hope is his staff of life. With a good market he sees good times ahead. It is an excellent barometer, and will necession. a good market he sees good times ahead. It is an excellent barometer, and will accurately delineate the condition of his mind.

For several days it has been hovering between 28 and 5i cents a barrel, and the operator is correspondingly depressed. The situation, he claims, warrants a better price. Butler county has been drilled over until a map of it and its wells resembles a mammonth sieve.

McDonald has been peppered until there is scarcely room to make a new location. The only drilling now being done in that field is on she edges. The little Allegheny county pools have been sapped until little oil is left.

Sistersville is new, but in the light of the McDonald gushers, it has not yet produced any market breakers. Its territory is spreading, but so far the outside wells are light.

They arrive at this conclusion from the fact that the wells just south of Willow Grove have declined very rapidly since the big ones came in.

The Forest Oil Company is starting No. 3 on the Mrs. McClelland farm, near Oakdale. The Feople's Gas Company has started to drill its No. 12 on the Miller & Wallace farm to the fifth sand. The Drygoods Market, The Drygoods Market.

New York, June 22.—Business in drygoods at first hunds was very fair in cotton goods and clothing woolens. Prints and glughnums were active in some quarters. Staple cottons were selfing in good-sized blocks with leading houses, but bleached goods lately advanced because of the limit of business on orders. The market was steady to strong in tone. The new clothing woolen season is getting started earlier than anticipated, but it is not likely that the market generally will open until next month. to Removing the Hump. FEATURES OF MONEY AND SPECULATION

Fifth Avenue Property Viewed in Relation

Mr. John Wesley, formerly prominent as a cattle dealer and butcher in East Liberty, mated a transaction yesterday by which he acquired about 12 acres of land, situated above the Edgewood road, Wilkiusburg, at a cost close to $25,000. The tract will be plotted and put on the market. Being near the line of the borough mentioned, and adjoining the Laveen plan, its mprovement will emphasize the necessity for uniting the two towns. It is even now a difficult matter to tell where one ends and the other begins.

Easier Than It Looks. The removal of the Fifth avenue "hump" appears to be a less formidable undertaking than is generally supposed. Speaking of this matter yesterday a prominent real estate operator said: "On the lower side of the avenue, from Smithfield street to Ross, the avenue, from Smithfield street to Ross, property is, or soon will be, in such shape as to make the cutting of positive advantage to it. The Court House was built with that end in view, and the Park block, corner of Fifth and Graut, as also the Carnegie block, and the M. P. Board of Publication office, will be. Kaufmanns are building on the same level. On the other side of the avenue, the Leader and the Maeder buildings are on the new grade. The houses west ings are on the new grade. The houses west of these to Smithfield street are old, and the damage to them would not be great. The Cathedral property and that between Grant and Ross streets, on the upper side of Fifth avenue, are really all that would be materially injured."

Mr. H. S. A. Stewart is laying the foundations for four handsome residences on Stanton avenue, Negley Place. They will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000 each. It was mentioned a short time ago that a Wood street banker was contemplating the erccition of a number of first-class dwellings in the Oakland district. It is understood he has gone so tar into the scheme as to consult an architect in regard to plans. Something important in the building line is expected to transpire on Greenfield avenue before the world is a month older. Some heavy capitalists are interested in this quarter.

Seven permits were issued yesterday, representing eight improvements, all at an estimated cost of $17,310. The most important are: L. H. Voight, brick dwelling on Negley avenue, Nineteenth ward, $7,800; Charles Kabbinger, two frame dwellings on Boggs avenue, Thirty-second ward, $2,560; F. C. Callender, brick dwelling on Wyoming street, Thirty-second ward, $1,400; Pennsylvania Railroad Company, freight depot on Carson street, Twenty-ninth ward, $7,000; Walter Payner, frame dwelling on Natrona aliey, Eighteenth ward, $1,500. INVESTORS CATCHING ON TO THE STREET RAILWAYS.

Riso and Fall of Pleasant Valley-Sellers Made a Nice Turn-Manchester and Airbrake Marked Up-No Special Changes in Other Directions.

The street railways monopolized business on the Stock Exchange yesterday. Nothing else was traded in. A few other things were wanted, but differences in values could not be bridged.

The feature of the day was a sharp advance, followed by a break in Pleasant Valley. These were simply business move-ments, and were not based upon anything affecting the company. The sellers were Long, Bailey and Caster. The stock cost them 25 or less, and by selling around 28 they made a nice turn. This was reason enough for unloading.

Manchester Traction was another interest-

Manchester Traction was another interesting feature, selling at 45% at the first call and at 46 at the afternoon session. Duquesne was fractionally stronger, but Birmingham scarcely held its ground. The same may be said of Citizens' Traction. Pipeage improved its position, but Phildelphia Gas closed a small fraction down for the day. All the advices from the new ras field were favorable. Airbrake made another jump. There was none offered under 44. Luster and United States Glass common submitted to slight concessions.

Saics at first call were 200 Pleasant Valley at 28, 200 at 27%, 10 Duquesne at 28, 50 Manchester at 45, 306% at 45%. After call, 23 Pleasant Valley at 27, 10 Duquesne at 28, 900 Birmingham at 28. Third call, 10 Central Traction at 28. After call 100 Manchester Traction sold at 48. Closing figures on the unlisted tractions

28. After call 100 Manchester Traction sold at 46.
Closing figures on the unlisted tractions were: Manchester, 44% bid; Birmingham, 26 bid after call. Duquesne, 26% bid, offered 28%. Allegheny County Light stock was wanted at 60. Bids and offers at each call follow:

stock market are confined to the trading by small pools on either side of the account. The opening was made on a very moder-The opening was made on a very moderate business, and at small but irregular changes from last night's figures, while the declining tendency in the Grangers met with little response from the rest of the list, while the strength in Atchison carried it up over 1 per cent. The liquidations in the Grangers depressed prices slowly, and Burlington, at its lowest point, was down over 1/4, but the rest of the market, without exception, remained without apparent tendency in either direction, fluctuating within the narrowest limits and developing no leature of interest whatever. The market gradually sank into the most insense dullhess, the nomination of Cleveland having no effect either to stimulate trade or cause any movement in prices, and the close was dull and tairly steady at insignificant changes for the day.

The bond market was quiet except for Atchison and Richmond and West Point issues, while the former was especially prominent in the dealings. Total sales, $1,425,000.
